

The mission of Paws For Cause, based in Huntington Beach CA, is to bring hope, love and encouragement to disadvantaged children, seniors, the homeless, shut-ins and disaster victims - all people facing challenging circumstances in life. Your support for Paws For Cause comes at a crucial time enables this non-profit organization to accomplish extraordinary goals such as:

- To provide thousands of stuffed animals to special needs and less fortunate children, hospital patients and forgotten seniors and those they reach and serve in order to extend the memory of the time together. With each $25.00 you donate, Paws For Cause will be able to provide a stuffed likeness of Ziba for a person in need.
- Bring a message of hope and comfort to those experiencing a personal tragedy; whether due to sickness, abuse, addiction, separation, disaster or even death. Paws For Cause approach is unique, in that they utilize licensed therapy dogs.
- Hosting mobile food outreaches in poverty-stricken areas of Orange County several times a week. The Chili-Mobile (mobile food pantry) provides hot meals, beverages and bread to thousands of at-risk people. With each $25.00 you donate, Paws For Cause will be able to provide dinner for 8 less fortunate people in Orange County.
- Holding workshops to help attendees (management, volunteer, employees, nurses, pastors, counselors, etc.) develop confidence and skills needed to be an encouragement to individuals and families facing challenging circumstances at home, in hospitals, children's hospitals and senior homes.

Paws for Cause Celebrity Gala

The Waterfront Beach Resort, a dog-friendly Hilton resort overlooking the Pacific Ocean in Huntington Beach (AKA Surf City, USA™), is proud to present Paws For Cause with Celebrity Guests on Saturday, July 24th from 6 pm to 9 pm. Limited to 100 attendees, the gala will include scheduled celebrity appearances by:

- Model and Actress Nikki Ziering best known for her work in “American Wedding” and for her years as a Barker Beauty on “The Price Is Right”
- Actor Jerry Mathers, best known for playing Beaver on “Leave it to Beaver”
- Animal welfare activist and former child actress Susan Olsen, who played Cindy Brady on “The Brady Bunch”
- Television and stage actor Barry Williams, who played Greg Brady on “The Brady Bunch”
- Television actor Christopher Knight, who played Peter Brady on “The Brady Bunch”
- Television actress Maureen McCormick, who played Marcia Brady on “The Brady Bunch”
- Television actress Tina Yothers, who played Jennifer Keaton on “Family Ties”

Event sponsors will enjoy dinner catered by the Resort’s popular Shades Restaurant & Bar, an open bar, and the opportunity to take photographs with celebrity guests. The night will begin with a presentation by Jami Goldman a world recorder holder and author of the book Up and running: The Jami Goldman Story. The celebrity gala kicks off a weekend of activities and events for adults, children and even their four-legged friends, with proceeds going to support various community organizations.

Entertainment for the event will be provided by “Acclaimed musical powerhouse Soul Activation who delivers an electrifying mix of R&B, Gospel, Blues and Jazz. Their most recent European tour included performances on radio, television as well as a live CD and DVD recording. The group is a staple at the House of Blues Sunday Gospel Brunch where they were joined onstage recently by Stevie Wonder. Don’t miss this incredible opportunity to ‘raise the roof’ with Soul Activation!”

“Café Au Lait is a delicious blend of vocals by Steve Clemons and Carrie Theodossin. Both singers bring polished voices and an impressive pedigree to the stage. Steve’s résumé includes years of touring with the Temptations and the Ink Spots. Carrie’s credits include the Orange County Symphony and the Downey Civic Light Opera. Together, they delight audiences with sparkling energy and a tasty menu of diverse musical styles.”
